

CHMS Human Rights Document

At Chippens Hill Middle School these rights apply to all people—students and staff—and to the entire school day, including travel to and from school.

- The right to develop one's own personality (so long as it does not interfere with the rights of others) without disrespectful criticism or pressure from cliques.
- Freedom from physical abuse and mental abuse such as name calling, intimidation or harassment.
- Freedom from being set apart or mocked because of race, sex, religion, physical strength, size, features, friendship groups, age, culture, handicap, financial status, clothing, classroom performance, or any other reason.
- The right of privacy and freedom from being harassed in the classroom: the right to be treated respectfully.
- The right to have personal and school property respected. Our school community is a safe place for property as well as people.
- The right to an education, which means that teachers are free to teach and students are free to learn without disruptions to the learning environment.
